

Blueprint and Roadmap

Blueprints translate the business vision and strategy into effective enterprise change initiatives. The blueprint enables prioritisation of investment in business and technology improvement activities.

Black Windmill helps organisations define clear outcomes, key requirements and transition states that enable an organisation's evolution.

We provide models that articulate states of an enterprise including the processes, services, information systems and underpinning technology. This provides the structure and guidance within which programs and projects can deliver targeted business outcomes.

